Handel's Oratorios: Majestic Narratives in Music

The Art of Arrangement: A Dialogue Between Past and Present

The art of arrangement is a delicate balance between respecting the original work and infusing it with a personal touch. Abbiati achieves this balance with remarkable skill, never straying too far from the composer's intentions while adding his own unique insights. Through subtle changes in orchestration, the addition of embellishments, and the occasional reworking of harmonies, Abbiati creates arrangements that are both faithful to the original and distinctly his own. It is this delicate touch that makes 'Arranged by Giovanni Abbiati' such a remarkable collection.
