Legends and Myths

The Island of the Lost has inspired countless legends and myths. Some say that it is the resting place of a legendary pirate treasure. Others believe that it is haunted by the ghosts of those who have died there.

One of the most enduring legends is that of the "Lost City of Gold." According to legend, this city was once ruled by a powerful king who possessed unimaginable wealth. But when the king angered the gods, the city was cursed and swallowed up by the sea.

Another legend tells of a beautiful princess who was imprisoned on the island by a jealous sorcerer. The princess vowed that she would only be rescued by a true hero. Many have searched for the princess, but none have ever returned.
