The Creative Process

Leonie's creative process begins with a deep understanding of the materials she works with. She carefully selects fabrics that are soft, luxurious, and sustainable. Her wraps are often made from natural fibers such as silk, cashmere, and wool, which she handpicks from local suppliers.

Once she has chosen her fabrics, Leonie begins to experiment with different designs. She often starts by draping the fabric on a mannequin, allowing the fabric to inspire her. She plays with different shapes, textures, and colors until she finds a combination that she loves.

Leonie's wraps are not only beautiful, but they are also incredibly versatile. They can be worn in a variety of ways, from a simple scarf to a sophisticated evening wrap. Leonie believes that her wraps should be able to adapt to any occasion, making them a wardrobe staple for women of all ages.

Sustainability in Fashion

Leonie is deeply committed to sustainability in fashion. She believes that it is important to create garments that are not only beautiful but also environmentally friendly. She uses sustainable materials in all of her designs, and she is constantly looking for ways to reduce her environmental impact.

One of Leonie's most innovative sustainable initiatives is her "Wrapcycling" program. This program allows customers to bring in their old wraps from any brand, and Leonie will transform them into new, stylish pieces. This not only helps to reduce waste, but it also gives customers a unique and sustainable way to update their wardrobe.

The Future of Fashion

Leonie believes that the future of fashion lies in sustainability and inclusivity. She wants to create garments that are not only beautiful but also accessible to everyone. She is working towards creating a more sustainable fashion industry, one that is more inclusive and equitable for all.

Leonie is also passionate about empowering women through fashion. She believes that women should feel confident and beautiful in their clothing, regardless of their size, shape, or age. Her wraps are designed to flatter women of all body types, and she offers a wide range of sizes to ensure that everyone can find the perfect fit.

Leonie Van De Vorle is a true visionary in the fashion industry. Her wraps are not only beautiful and versatile, but they are also sustainable and inclusive. Leonie is committed to creating a more sustainable and equitable fashion industry, and her work is inspiring women around the world.

As we move into the future, we can expect to see even more innovative and sustainable designs from Leonie Van De Vorle. She is a true leader in the fashion industry, and her work is sure to continue to inspire and empower women for years to come.
